Antinori, Tignanello, Toscana Rosso 2008, Tuscany This vintage is ready to enjoy right now. A single-vineyard sangiovese along with beautiful, nuanced cabernet. A Bordeaux style but remains distinctly Tuscan.	220
France
Chateau Deyrem Valentin, Margaux 2010, Bordeaux Hands-down one of the best values in the region. Lush. Complex. Satisfyingly opulent.	80
Chateau Valentin, Haut-Medoc 2010, Bordeaux 80% cabernet sauvignon. 100% purity of fruit. Tenacious as well as nuanced. This is the everyday Bordeaux we've been searching for almost a decade.	36
Chateau Reignac, Bordeaux Superieur 2005, Bordeaux 75% Merlot. 25% Cabernet. This beauty has been in our hands sine before we opened our doors. It is finally ready to drink. Still a power-house, but showing elegance now. The famed 2005 vintage wines are hard to come by. Don't miss out!	120
Clos de la Roquette, Fluerie 2014, Beaujolais A Cru Beaujolais that shows a simultaneous balance between rusticity and grace.	32
Domaine Chavet, Mentou-Salon, 2012, Loire A floral pinot noir that sings an ode to the soil. Lean. Pretty. Seductive.	40
Domaine Dubreuil-Fontaine, Pommard Epenots 1er Cru, 2012, Burgundy A true expression of pinot noir. Soil to glass. You are tasting history. You are tasting what lovers of Burgundy seek - elegance, nuance, and subtlety. Overall, this is a study in length and precision with a hint of untamed rusticity to further charm us.	100
Christophe Buisson, Saint-Romain, 2013, Burgundy Beautiful and compelling. One of the better values we've found from this region. Elegant, but stuffed with flavor as well. Autumnal and resonant.	50
Chateau Muzard, Santenay 1er Cru, Maladiere 2009, Burgundy Lots of layers. Earth-driven but also elegant and lengthy with good fruit. A remarkable pinot.	70
Marc Colin et ses Fils, Santenay 1er Cru La Comme 2013, Burgundy Rich pinot noir that garners your attention with earthy berries and a refined texture that glides across your tongue.	80
Domaine Chevillon Nuits-Saint-Georges Vieilles Vignes 2011, Burgundy A pinot noir from old vines. These aged treasures provide the grapes with an intensity and complexity that few wines can boast. Dark and brooding and beautiful.	135
Domaine Parent Pommard Argillieres Premier Cru 2009 Burgundy Argillieres, or clay soil, begets elegance in a wine. A stunning wine with deep ripe fruit aromas, spice, and clove. Wood is well-integrated, the texture is silky and elegant. The structure is profound. Two hundred cases made. A memorable wine.	190
Anne Claude Leflaive, Clau de Nell, Cabernet Franc, Anjou 2011, Loire A light-handed artistic and terroir-focused expression. Beauty and intrigue with a tangible undercurrent of vintage and soil. An inspired wine.	80
Anne Claude Leflaive, Clau de Nell, Grolleau, Vin De Pays Du Val De Loire 2012, Loire This hard-to-find wine is one of the most interesting we've ever tasted. A red that invokes grapefruit, pomegranate, and bramble. Strange and captivating.	100
Domaine Tempier, Cabassaou Bandol 2009, Provence 95% Mourvèdre and absolutely amazing. 50 year-old vines and incredible soils show an astonishing depth. An iconic, single-vineyard wine with ripeness, density, and power.	100
Domaine Tempier, Bandol 2012, Provence 75% Mourvèdre, 14% Grenache, 9% Cinsault, 2% Carignan. A classic wine. Depth and intensity are its calling card. Try with something off the grill and behold magic.	75
Dom. Roger Perrin, Châteauneuf-du-Pape 2011, Rhone A commanding wine that delivers with both elegance and bombast.	65
L'Accent De La Roquete, Châteauneuf-du-Pape 2009, Rhone A 90/10 blend of grenache and mourvedre that evokes a powerful sense of terroir and vintage. Only 333 cases made.	150
Dom. Chambeyron, Côte-Rôtie La Chavarine 2011, Rhone A rare single-vineyard syrah that gives you an idea of how compelling this grape, grown in ideal conditions/soil can become. Wholly resonant!	88
Jean-Luc Colombo, Terres Bruleés, Cornas 2011, Rhone Bold and bombastic with an elegance that few syrahs exhibit.	75
Paul Jaboulet Aine Hermitage, La Petite Chapelle 2005, Rhone Ample, focused and delicious. Generous with forest berries, notes of cedar, and dried herbs.	170
Domaine Vinci, Roc, Vin De Pays Des Côtes Catalanes, 2013, Roussillon This blend of foot-pressed, unoaked carignan and grenache is a rare glimpse into the unapologetic wines of yesteryear. Earth. Funk. Spice. Animal and sanguine.	50
Spain
Murtia, Monastrell, 2013, Jumilla Fresh and sprightly but with enough fruit to match well with grilled food.	24
Quo Premium, Garnacha, 2010, Campo de Borgja Structure and depth. Spiced cherries and notes of wild herbs.	40
R. López de Heredia Viña Tondonia Reserva 2003, Rioja Big and lush tempranillo. A juicy depth and lipsmacking layers of fruit. Old world rusticity moves through the glass seamlessly along with a compelling complexity.	70
Gotes Del Priorat, Grenache/Carignan, 2013, Priorat A fugue between grippy, earth-driven fruit and supple spice. Great with steak.	40
Clos Gebrat, Priorat Blend, 2013, Priorat Intense and bold. A blend of both indigenous varietals along with cab/merlot/syrah. The layers and textures will have you craving a steak.	50
Greece
Domaine Mercouri, 2010, Letrini Refosco and Mavrodaphne create this stately blend. A dense and plum-laden wine with plenty of spice and hints of leather, smoke, and char.	50
Harlaftis, Nemea, 2012, Stamatis An easy-drinking wine made solely from the Agiorgitiko grape. Medium bodied, soft tannins, and well balanced, with notes of fruit and nuts.	28
Turkey
Kavaklidere, Yakut, 2014, Anatolia Öküzgözü, Boğazkere, Alicante, and Carignan are blended in this aromatic and fresh wine. Great with grilled fare.	36

Gems From the Cellar -

Unmasking the Treasures

The lion's share of our cellar belongs to a number of bottles selected for everyday enjoyment. With these wines, we focus on quality, purity, variety, value, and, above all, excitement. By and large, most of the wines that we steward appear on our printed list. Each week, however, we change our list--sometimes dramatically--to ensure we continually align with the above mission. These changes allow for us to keep our palates sharp, and to move forward in our daily journey of learning more about wine and food.

While immersed in these efforts, however, we do allow a few, select bottles to rest, breath, and change, in hopes of something special happening down the road. Aging wine, after all, in our philosophy, is not about showcasing what we have in our cellar. Our goal, rather, is to let the following wines sleep, change, and reach their optimum potential. Here is a selection of some of our slumbering giants that have awakened and are ready to enjoy.

Domaine Tempier, La Tourtine Bandol 2008, Provence
80% Mourvèdre and absolutely amazing. 40 year-old vines and incredible soils show an astonishing depth and tenacity. An iconic, single-vineyard wine with ripeness and unapologetic power and brilliance. 100

Chateau Reignac, Bordeaux Superieur 2005, Bordeaux
75% Merlot. 25% Cabernet. This beauty has been in our hands sine before we opened our doors. It is finally ready to drink. Still a power-house, but showing elegance now. The famed 2005 vintage wines are hard to come by. Don't miss out! 120

Seghesio, Venom Sangiovese Rattlesnake Hills 2008, California
One of the few new world wines in our cellar. This expression of the famed Italian varietal is the finest stateside example we've tasted. Explodes with notes both of sangiovese and of its Alexander Valley soils. Mysterious, absolutely compelling, and delicious. 100

Marchesi di Gresy, Barbaresco, Martinega Camp Gros 1999, Piedmont
A rare gem sent to us directly from the winery. This is a Botticelli Birth of Venus. This will transport you to a dimension where time ceases and where fermented grape juice tastes like a wild, satisfyingly opulent dream. 250
